

The people are rapidly getting their eyes opened to the fact that for first-class goods, elegant styles, low-down prices, and an immense stock, has no equal in the County. We manufacture goods especially for our own retail trade, and are always careful to put no goods into our stock that will not in every respect come fully up to representation. Our goods are marked in plain figures, sold strictly at one price to all, and satisfaction in every case guaranteed or the money promptly refunded. We are opening this week a magnificent line of Children's, Boy's, Youth's and Men's Suits and Overcoats at prices which cannot fail to please. Also, 500 heavy weight undershirts and drawers at 25 cents each, selling elsewhere at double the money.

The "When"

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Snow yesterday.
Thanksgiving to-day.

Mrs. Fitz T. Jones is in town.

"Mother Goose" cleared over sixty dollars for Roberts Chapel.

Ex-Marshall Welsh says there is no bound in Joe Kleinbub's dog.

There were seventy persons in Dr. Joyce's Bible Class last Sunday.

The sidewalks on East Washington Street have been covered with gravel.

Theodore G. Bowman will eat Thanksgiving turkey with his family here to-day.

The Indiana College Association will meet at Indianapolis December 26 and 27.

Al. Geary was acquitted on the charge of larceny, in the Circuit Court yesterday.

The Female College girls indulged in a "candy-pulling" at Dr. Fry's, Saturday evening.

Subscribe for the BANNER early, before our supply of Agricultural Reports is exhausted.

We will begin distributing the Agricultural Report to those entitled to it, about the middle of December.

Capt. Watkins, who has been confined to his house for several days, is again at his post at Hays & Brown's.

Subscribe for the BANNER that waves for all, and get a copy of the Agricultural Report for 1877, free. It is a book of 700 or 800 pages.

Blanchard H. Lucas, once a clerk here for G. H. Williamson, was married last evening, to Miss Fannie L. Puterbaugh, of Indianapolis.

J. T. Darnall has received from a friend in Washington an autograph volume of the members of Congress and chief officers of the Nation.

Rev. H. Hays filled the Locust Street Church pulpit Sunday morning, and on Monday went to Monrovia to attend the Conference of the Indianapolis District.

Hon. John Hanna has been overwhelmed with law business during the vacation of Congress. He will go to Washington either Wednesday or Thursday.

The teachers of the Baptist Church, Christian Church and Roberts Chapel, meet together every Tuesday night. The next meeting will be at the Baptist Church.

A. J. Hill goes to Terre Haute this week, to complete his ritualistic work for the Knights of Pythias of that city, and to paint the scenery of their new hall. "It seems to be no trouble for Mr. Hill to evolve from his brain a first-class ritual for any order desired. He is the great ritualistic artist."

Crouch and Wheelan, the Putnamville teachers, were tried in Mayor Chapin's court, Saturday, on the charge of assault and battery on one of their pupils named Rightzell, and acquitted. W. G. Neff and Capt. H. B. Martin appeared for the prosecution, and M. A. Moore and Thomas Hanna for the defense.

James Harcourt, a teacher of Mill Creek township, was in town Saturday, searching for a minister to make him happy on Sunday by uniting him in marriage to Miss Isabel A. Brinton, of Jefferson township. Rev. A. P. Stout kindly went to his assistance, and tied the knot in approved style, in the presence of a large company of friends. The BANNER extends congratulations.

The services at Brown's Hall still continue to attract large audiences. Rev. S. E. Wishard preaches with much acceptability, and the songs of Mr. William Johnson delight all who hear them. A purse of near $100 was privately raised and presented to them on Monday, in recognition of what they are doing. A large number of persons have arisen and asked for the prayers of the church, and the evidences of a general religious awakening are general. The services will continue indefinitely, day and night.

Friday morning a robbery was committed on Ling Chin, the laundryman, by Mick Stack. The boy was loading in the laundry, and when the Chinaman stepped into a back room the boy coolly abstracted from a drawer about seven dollars. He got away with his booty, and invested in a couple of revolvers. The Chinaman afterward discovered his loss, and Stack and a supposed accomplice, one Joe Snyder, were arrested on Sunday morning, at the north depot, by Marshal Donnohue.

Asbury University.

The choir have moved to the gallery above the rostrum.
Frank Batterson, of Greensburg, visited college friends Tuesday.
Prof. O. H. Smith, of the Danville Normal School, visited the college Monday.
Dr. Earp entertained the faculty and Senior class last evening by an oyster supper.

President Martin went to Monrovia, Monday, to attend the Conference of the Indianapolis District.
Dr. Tingley lectured last Sunday. After lecture Dr. Martin stated that the Indianapolis convention was a success, and that the attendance was four times as large as stated by a local paper.

Mrs. Prof. DeMotte returned, Tuesday morning, from Parke and Vermilion counties, where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

Monday morning, while J. F. McClure was speaking, a small dog tried to climb the speaker's leg. Dr. Wiley conducted the sportive canine to a seat upon the outside sill of a window, where he remained until after Chapel.

Senator Booth, of California, '46, was in the city Wednesday, stopping at the residence of Mr. Geo. Ames, his brother-in-law, on Washington Street. He left for the East to-day. He and Dr. Wiley were fast friends while they were in college together in '45-46, and continue so.

Monday afternoon Prof. Haines and the Philosophical Senior Preparatory Class performed the experiment in Hydrostatics of filling a pipe inserted in a barrel, and reaching to the cupola, with water. An inch tube was used. The barrel was considerably sprung, but was too strong to be burst.

In a new work on "American Colleges," by C. F. Thwing, the author says that their most encouraging feature is the constant expansion of their curriculum. In the first ten years of Harvard's existence, the only conditions required for graduation were that the student should be "able to render the originals of the Old and New Testament into the Latin tongue, and to resolve them logically, without being of Godly life and conversation." The average age of pupils entering college is steadily increasing, also, which is another good sign. To give the learner plenty to do is the best way to keep him moral. There are 26,000 college students in the United States, New York alone excepted. Ohio has more of them than any other state in the Union. American students are believed by Mr. Thwing to be much less dissolute than those of Europe.

Aggricultural Report for 1877.

This is a valuable work for farmers, and, if bought in the usual way, would cost three or four dollars. We have made arrangements to present a copy, free, to every subscriber to the BANNER for 1879, till further notice. The paper will be sent the rest of this year free.

What Advertisements can Accomplish.

London letter to Cincinnati Enquirer.
In Paris, last Summer, I saw a friend of mine who had just come over using a pen of peculiar construction, designed with special reference to those untidy persons who, like myself, ink their fingers when they write. Now, my friend is a man whose hands are as white as lilies, with finger nails like rosebuds in tint; noticeable hands; even remarkable, considering that he is an elderly man, and one who occasionally helps with the lighter work on his farm in Nebraska. Catch him inking his fingers!

Why, where did you get that nice pen?" I asked him, a visit of blissful exemption from an uninked middle finger opening on my joyous, expectant mind.

"In Omaha," he answered. "It's the nicest thing I used to ink my fingers before I got it."

He did! He inked his fingers! That was enough for me. I got the name of the merchant from whom he bought the pen, the price of it, and enclosing the money, I sent from Paris to Omaha for the pen.

By the last steamer it came to me. There had been a little delay. The stationer at Omaha was out of them, but he sent up to Sioux City to the man that advertises them for another lot. And now here is where the laugh comes in. The pens are an English invention, and tons of them can be bought in London, if desired. At the stationer's next door to Sioux City. But how could I know that? I dealt with the man that advertised.

The Republican plurality in New York this year is 37,616. Tilden carried the State two years ago by about 30,000 plurality.

The disputed county in Florida, which was claimed to have been carried for Tilden in 1876, went Republican this fall.

St. Louis will open no free soup houses this winter. Last year's trial convinced the people that they were institutions for the attraction of pauperism and not its alleviation.

An exciting foot race took place at Denver, Col., Saturday, between C. H. Williams, of Denver, and Davis, of California. Stakes $1,000 a side. The race was won by Williams. Time 91 seconds. Distance, 100 yards. Thirty thousand dollars changed hands on the result.

A proposition is now pending in the Georgia Legislature to grant special privileges to ex-Confederates who have been disabled by wounds or the loss of limbs, by exempting them from taxation under State and county levies.

The Columbus Democrat has changed hands. J. D. Lyle selling out to J. N. Marsh of the North Vernon Sun, for $5,500.

It seems that B. J. Williams did not raise the cattle he sold to the Insane Asylum at 1 1/2 cents to 2 cents above the market price, but bought them from a Knox county farmer on speculation.

The funeral of six of the miners killed by the explosion in Handford Bro's coal shaft, at Sullivan, Ind., Thursday evening, took place Saturday afternoon, two of the eight corpses being sent to other localities for interment. The bodies of the two Handfords were placed in a hearse and the other four placed in a large wagon. Two thousand people were in the procession. Every business house in Sullivan was closed while the ceremonies were in progress. The Blue Ribbon Club, of which five of the men were members, marched in a body.

A detachment of revenue officers, near Columbia, South Carolina, were surrounded on Wednesday night in a house where they were sleeping, by a band of about fifty masked men, and ordered to leave the county; several shots were fired, and it is believed the efforts of the farmer with whom the officers were stopping alone saved their lives. Commissioner Rahm has ordered reinforcements sufficient to make all proper seizures and arrests, and declares he will oppose any further amnesty in that State. Offenders will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Having tried turf and found it worthless, the Government will now use stones. The difficulty in these cases is that the criminals are backed by public opinion. It is constantly becoming more popular in all parts of the South to violate National laws.

Stand by Your Home Paper as it Stands by You.

No other paper sustains, nor can sustain, the same relation to the citizens of Putnam county as the BANNER. It has been, is now, and will continue to be, the organ of the best thought and highest principles of our people. It stands for good government; for honesty, for truth, and for the equality of all men before the law. No intelligent person will deny that the publication of the BANNER is beneficial to the entire community. It champions and supports every movement intended for the public good. Politically, it is uncompromisingly Republican. All who believe in cherishing the principles of that party, and who desire to see it successful over the enemies of our country two years hence, are invited to use every endeavor to increase the circulation of this paper. Its public information will be of the most reliable character, and such as no citizen can afford to be without. A department will be especially devoted to affairs in Washington City. The BANNER will give facts, leaving its readers to make their own arguments. Without occupying so much space as the metropolitan weeklies, it will give in a condensed form a more reliable, satisfactory and intelligible history of current political events, and in this respect will be superior to any county paper in the country. It is needless to say that it will be greatly strengthened and encouraged in its course, and its power for usefulness increased, if all the Republicans of Putnam county will assist in increasing its circulation. It is their interest no less than ours. Putnam county can only be made Republican by the circulation of sound Republican literature. Efforts made in any other way are time and money wasted. To secure their permanent adherence to the principles of our party the people must be addressed through their intelligence.

What a Dollar will Buy.

The Indianapolis Weekly News is just now rapidly extending its circulation, by means of the same policy of cheapness joined to great merit, which has made its Daily edition so widely sought. The Weekly, like the Daily, seeks to compress in a small compass, yet in plain reading type, all the news of the day found in the larger blanket sheets, so that the subscriber gets the gist of all without having to pay for a waste of blank paper either for pictures, margins or an ocean of advertisements. It aptly illustrates the adage, "The most precious articles are often found in the smallest packages." Those who pass it by for lack of size, mistake bulk for merit. One who reads the Indianapolis Weekly News for a year can not but wonder that such an encyclopedia of information can be furnished, postage included, for one dollar a year, which is its price. The hints it contains for making and saving, to say nothing of its full market reports, would alone profit the reader one hundred fold above the cost if well followed.

ART.
The art of drawing and painting is considered by many simply in the light of an amusement, unworthy of serious study. Now, what is worth doing at all is worth doing well, and the idea that any one can successfully practice any branch of art without having previously learned to draw, is false. The eye and hand must be trained, and the taste cultivated, before any result worthy of the name can be achieved. The best foundation for any art-work is a thorough knowledge of drawing, and the time spent in acquiring such knowledge will never be regretted. To those who have the time and patience, as well as the natural ability to learn to draw, we would say make it our first business to acquire that knowledge; cultivate your taste by study of the best models; educate your eye to perceive beautiful forms in nature or art, and your hand to transcribe them. It is especially important that young persons should do this, for it will add greatly to their usefulness and pleasure in after life. Mrs. Lizzie Clark is now giving lessons in both drawing and painting in the Old University Building. Terms reasonable. Hours, 9 to 11 A. M.; 2 to 5 P. M. 38-4t.

Wheeler & Wilson, of Union Square New York, were awarded one of the Special Grand Prizes at the Paris Exposition, Oct. 21st, on their improved Sewing Machine, over eighty competitors. It was the only Grand Prize awarded sewing machines. The editor of the BANNER has one of these machines, just received from the manufactory, which he will sell cheaply. 4t
